COUNTY HIGH SCHOOLS TO OPEN MONDAY MORNING

Initial Exercises At All Schools To Begin At 9:30 A.M.

"All boys and girls should enroll Monday, if they are planning to attend county high schools this year," advised Prentice Lassiter, superintendent. "We are under-estimating many difficulties, but if we will all work together we can have a successful school," the Calloway rural school chief stated this morning.

He urges students who have books for sale to carry them to school for someone may be in need of them. All patrons are requested to be at school on the opening day, as their presence will be of value to the school.

The opening exercises for all the high schools will be at 9:30 a.m. Monday, September 6.

The boys will make the same route as last year, Mr. Lassiter said.

Lynn Grove

A special musical program has been arranged for this occasion. Rev. T. H. Mullins, Jr., of Murray, will be the principal speaker of the morning.

The teachers, as announced by Principal Burton Jeffrey are as follows: Raymond Story, Mrs. Myrtle Clark, Mrs. Burton Jeffrey, Mrs. A. C. LaFollette, Mrs. Elizabeth Dalton, Mrs. Charles Bunch, Mrs. Opal Hale, Mrs. Georgia Wear.

In the interest of the people of Lynn Grove, the South bound bus will run first and the North bound.

Almo

According to Guy Lovins, principal, a program has been arranged with the Rev. Luther Shaffer of Almo as principal speaker. The teachers are:

Milton Walton, Mrs. Marian Bailey, Miss Myrtle Chapman, Pauline McCoy, Mrs. Estelle McDougal, Mrs. Burdette Wrentham.

Kirksey

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Nanny, says a program has been prepared with the Rev. R. F. Blankenship of Kirksey in charge of the devotional and Prentice L. Lassiter, superintendent, as principal speaker.

The teachers are as follows: Mrs. J. H. Walston, Mrs. Ray T. Tamm, Mrs. Mabel Pullen, Miss Myrtle Clendenen, Miss Hallett Smith, Mrs. Frances Suter.

The program that has been planned for Monday will be of interest to all. Those attending are Rev. L. C. Childers, pastor of the Methodist church, H. J. Rev. T. Davis, pastor of the Baptist church, and Sgt. Lester Nanny, Calloway county's World War II hero.

The teachers are Buford Hart, principal; Canon Parks, Mrs. Kaye, Mrs. Geraldine Myers, Mrs. Estelle Erwin, Mrs. Frances Pinkley, Miss Modest Brandon, Mrs. Charmin Parks, Mrs. Leta Robinson.

New Concord

A program has been arranged with M. G. Wrentham as principal speaker.

Sgt. Lester G. Nanny Returns To Calloway Decorated For Bravery

Sgt. Lester G. Nanny stands on the reviewing grounds at the Valley Forge Hospital while the Silver Star is pinned on him by Colonel Henry Beckwith, commanding officer at Valley Forge.

Sgt. Lester G. Nanny, 29, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Nanny, returned to his native town last week with all the honors that one could bring and amid all the honors Murray could bestow upon him. He arrived by train in Paris, Tenn., and was met there by two cars that carried his parents and driven by Rev. Wade Darby, pastor of the Baptist church, Kirksey. In the other car were his brother, Louis Nanny, and Mrs. Nanny, and their son, Charles Nanny, his sister, Mrs. Clifton Cochran and Mr. Cochran, another sister, Mrs. Joseph Meador, and Miss Mary Dunn.

"They came to the court square for the ceremony that Murray and Calloway friends had made ready while Sgt. Nanny remained in the car," A. D. Austin, secretary of the home and introduced Captain General, who made appropriate remarks. War Bonds were presented him. One came from Calloway and Murray friends and another from the Murray Consumer's Coal & Ice Co. Music and flags added to the occasion.

Sgt. Nanny has come home to stay three weeks and then will return to the Valley Forge General Hospital where he will undergo operations for the wounds he received in Africa. He is getting about on crutches because of a broken right knee and an injury on the left leg above the knee. He suffered fresh wounds in the shoulders. For weeks he lay in a cast from his foot to his neck. He expects to recover some from these wounds but he says the hope for complete recovery is weak.

While talking to him at the home of his parents on the Coldwater Road, he spoke modestly and apologetically about the war. He told of his experiences over here and over there in a manner most interesting.

He volunteered February 1941 and was in the field artillery and went across to foreign service in May, 1942. He hit land in Belfast, Ireland, and spent time there then was sent to England and Scotland before going to Africa.

When asked what he thought about those Irish smiling eyes of the girls in Ireland, he replied that they were pretty but not so pretty as the smiling eyes of the Calloway county girls.

He experienced travels all up and down the northern coast of Africa and spent his first fighting hours in taking three airports near Oran. His division saw the French surrender. They stayed around there and repaired their vehicles and made ready for the movement on November 18.

On Thanksgiving he was encountered by the German and Italian army near Tunisia. He said he remembered that it was Thanksgiving but they had to keep on the move and no kind of observance was made for the day. Here the enemy pushed them back. They were re-enclosed, and drove back and then spent much time in moving back and forth to strengthen weak spots on other fronts.

Sgt. Nanny had a Calloway man for his buddy. He is Guy Span, who was wounded there and is now in a New York hospital. Friends of Sgt. Span will remember him when he drove the delivery truck for Riley's Grocery.

Lt. Armstrong

returns to Murray

Lt. J. W. Armstrong from Henderson, Ky., is a new member of the U. S. N. F. School here. He will be in charge of the study of chemical warfare and the various methods employed by the combatant of poisonous gases. This course is to familiarize the cadets with a phase of training they may need later. Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong will reside at the Hite home on Olive.

Mrs. Armstrong is a writer and sends in columns to her father's paper in Henderson.

Lt. Armstrong is no stranger here. Years ago when Murray supported Reseach Chaulauqua program, Lt. Armstrong was the advance man who came to help with the arrangement. He remembers many of the citizens here and enjoys telling of various experiences he had. In a conversation with him down town soon after he arrived, he remarked that Murray was the only town of its size in the United States who sponsored the full seven-day program.

Navy Honors First Murray Student Killed

Ensign Russell Snyder, a popular athlete of Murray State College, and the first Murray student to be killed in this war, was honored August 30, when a destroyer escort was named "Snyder" and launched in San Pedro, Calif. His widow, Mrs. Lillian J. Snyder, made a special trip from her home in Honolulu to sponsor the vessel. Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Snyder of Corbin, parents of Ensign Snyder, also attended the launching. Mrs. Snyder served as mistress of honor.

Ensign Snyder, 26, was attached to a combat patrol squadron as pilot and was killed December 10, 1941. He was reported to be flying a Navy plane when shot down by the Japanese in the Philippines. He was awarded the Purple Heart decoration posthumously.

Ed has a brother, Clyde, who worked with the TVA in Murray before he entered the Army and is now a Japanese prisoner.

Charles C. Canon Awarded Wings

30. Navigation, Schools, Aug. 20. —Hundreds of youthful American navigation cadets, just back from thrilling graduation flights to their home towns and principal distant cities, gazed on their silver wings this week at commencement exercises held simultaneously at both Hondo and San Marcos, Tex. Among these was Charles C. Canon, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Canon of Murray, Ky.

The impressive wing-pinning ceremony at these two navigation-training schools in the heart of Texas signified the new beginning that now after 18 weeks of purposeful regimen they were ready to do their part in obliterating the enemy. Most of the officers have already left to join the two members of the 21st out bombing trio, the bombardier and the pilot. Some of the graduates will remain to act as instructors for cadets just entering navigation training.

Lt. Canon is taking an interesting course in the former Murray Edith Lax.

LaFollette, wife of Prof. LaFollette who is head of the speech department in Murray State and connected with the Navy, has returned to the teaching profession and will be in the Lynn Grove school. Mrs. LaFollette has two little girls and has been active in the civic and church work in Murray.

Fifth Battalion Is Graduated Sunday

Beautiful and impressive was the ceremony that graduated about one hundred fifty cadets of the Fifth Battalion in the U. S. Naval Flight Preparatory School here Sunday afternoon, at 6 o'clock. Drills and maneuvers were given by the school in the auditorium before the students were granted in the auditorium later.

One of the largest crowds to attend these graduations witnessed this event and heard inspiring speeches by Lieut. Commander C. L. Wiley, the captain of the ship, Lieut. Commander George M. Lynch, and Lieut. John A. Springer. These men praised the graduates for their splendid military discipline and the progressive work done in the Murray school. The band and the cheer club gave a combined concert during the program.

Coal Rationing During Winter Believed Certain

Rationing of coal is believed a certainty this winter, according to reports reaching Murray. Reports indicated to be very reliable.

Coal dealers have been working almost to death all summer putting in coal for the people here against the time when a coal shortage will come. So far dealers here have been able to keep up with their orders fairly well.

Solutions for heating this winter are to buy coal now and to insulate homes so that coal will be saved. Houses are improved in color and in comfort by proper insulation — an improvement that is not forbidden by wartime regulations. In fact, it is being encouraged.

Fuel oil is of course already being rationed, and wood is practically out with a shortage of manpower to cut it.

Lt. Bell Recuperating In New York Hospital

Lieut. Bernard Bell, who was wounded three times in the Tunisian campaign in North Africa, arrived in New York Sunday, Aug. 22, for treatment in the Halloran General Hospital there.

Mayor's Wife Is Named Editor of Ledger & Times

Announcement is made today of the appointment of Mrs. George S. Hart as editor of The Ledger and Times to succeed Mr. Harold Van Winkle, who resigned as of last Saturday to accept a teaching assignment in a high school in Evansville, Ind. — Mrs. Van Winkle and her two children will join him there at an early date.

Mrs. Hart needs no introduction to the readers of The Ledger and Times, either in Murray or in Calloway County, as she is a native of the city and county and taught school both in the Murray High School and the rural schools. Before her marriage to George S. Hart, Mayor of Murray and Cashier of the Bank of Murray, she was Miss Lucile Broach, daughter of the late Mr. O. I. Broach, and Mr. Broach, Hazel Road. She is a graduate of the Murray State College in the class of 1932, having majored in English. She also took the journalism course offered by Murray State. She had experience of the College News and was Editor-in-Chief of the college annual in 1933.

She has served as secretary of the Alumnae Association of Murray State for the past seven years and she is now serving her second term as president of the Murray Woman's Club. She was awarded Murray's Degree of Murray State last June, majoring in administrative education.

Mrs. Hart assumed her new duties on Tuesday and states that she will appreciate the co-operation of the people of the city and county in gathering and publishing the news of interest.

Mrs. Jim Cochran Claimed by Death

Mrs. Allie Cochran, wife of Jim Cochran, died Monday at the home on Mulberry street. She was a lone illness.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Cochran is survived by two children, B. Cochran and Mrs. Jim Cochran.

For this special drive there are three new bonds available in addition to the "War Bonds," "P" and "G." They are:

The "2 1/2% Treasury Certificate" — a coupon bond due in one year; the "2 1/2% War Bond" — a coupon bond due in 26 years.

These bonds must be bought by people other than banks. In previous drives the banks have helped to put the quota over, but in this particular drive the banks are not eligible to help.

Mr. Carter and Mr. Hart agree that it will be necessary for every one if it is possible, to buy one extra $100 bond during this campaign that will begin September 1. They remind the Callowayans that their own husbands, brothers and sweethearts have no one else in back to help during these "Back The Attack—With War Bonds" days.

No Labor Day Celebrations

The local banks and dry cleaners are closed today, business that will resume on Wednesday afternoon.

Proclamation

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES

Proclamation

RECOGNIZING THE FACT that in carrying the war into enemy territory, we shall need greater amounts of money than any nation has ever asked from its citizens in all history, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, do officially proclaim that on Thursday, the ninth of September, 1943, the Third War Loan shall be launched.

As Commander-in-Chief, I hereby invoke every citizen to give all possible aid and support to this Third War Loan drive, not only so that our financial goal may be reached, but to encourage and inspire those of our husbands and fathers and sons who are under fire on a dozen fronts all over the world. It is my earnest hope that every American will realize that in buying War Bonds in this Third War Loan he has an opportunity to express voluntarily and under the guidance of his conscience, the extent to which he will "back the attack."

The American people supported well the first and second War Loan drives and in fact did even more than was asked of them. Our need for money now is greater than ever, and will continue to grow until the very day that Victory is won; so we must ask far more sacrifice, far more cooperation than ever before.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington, this twenty-sixth day of July, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and forty-three, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-eighth.

By the President

CORDELL HULL

Secretary of State.

SGT. NANNEY—

and ordered directions and the men met the other sections and made their way out. This was in February. He was awarded the Silver Star for this service at the hospital at Valley Forge, and his picture was printed in the Philadelphia Record, August 21. Colonel Henry Beuwke, commanding officer of Valley Forge Hospital, made the presentation as eight platoons of soldiers and WACS passed in review. "Moving on foot, through heavy enemy tank fire, he selected routes and led his half-track over the most difficult and hazardous terrain to the safety of friendly lines. Through the gallant action of Sgt. Nanney, a valuable piece of equipment was prevented from falling into enemy hands and his crew presented intact for later engagement with the enemy."
All was not dull with Sgt. Nanney after he was wounded. He told of having a visit paid him by Corbenn Bennett. He enjoyed talking about this beautiful actress. And he still has some pretty red roses that were given him personally by the Dutchess of Windsor when she and the Duke visited him in the hospital. "She looks just like her picture," he said. "She is very friendly and smiles. The Duke is a little different. You can tell he is not an American, but is very friendly."
His mother visited him, too, while he was in the hospital. She visited him last June. He had not seen her for over a year when he was home on a furlough.
"Christmas was spent in fighting. There are no holidays in the war. The mail was poor. And there were a lot of such things after he crossed the ocean. But his hopes are bright and he is happy to be home with his people. He whistles as he gets about the place and enjoys his friends. He says that we do not know much about the war. "If a bomb were dropped on the United States, the folks back here would be more aware of the blessings they enjoy." When asked how he felt about the Third War Loan drive that is being planned for this month, he remarked that money would get the equipment they need over there. He said that equipment certainly would help with the war and at present the equipment was getting into the proper hands without much interruption.
When asked about his medals and how he won the Silver Star, he replied, "I wasn't thinking of any with and get home." When asked if he ever thought of fighting in the battles, he said, "I never thought of being scared. I simply had a job to do and my only thought was getting it done."
Sgt. Nanney in civilian life was employed by the Murray Consumer's Coal & Ice Company. He graduated from Murray High School in 1933.
His parents and brothers and sisters are well known in the county. Mr. Nanney owns a well equipped farm and is busy with his tobacco raising. There are two brothers who are in the service. Earl Nanney is in the Navy and is somewhere on the Pacific on patrol duty. He volunteered last spring and is head of a carpenter's division on the ship.
Seaman John Calvin Nanney, the youngest son, is 19 and joined the Navy last spring. He is in the Great Lakes Training School. Another brother, Ralph Nanney, is in a defense plant in Wheeling, W. Va. Mrs. E. L. Douglas, Lynn Grove, is his sister.

GRAND OLE OPRY COMING TO TOWN!

Jamup and Honey's 1943 edition of the Grand Ole Opry will fly their mammoth tent at Fourth and Poplar, September 13. This is the third season for Jamup and Honey under canvas. Each year they have tried to have an entirely different show—and this season they have hit the jack pot with Minnie Pearl, "The Pride of Grindler's Switch", Pee Wee King and The Golden West Cowboys, Tex Sumner, Chuck Wiggins, Cherokee Slim Smith, and Jimmy Wilson. Of course, Jamup and Honey will offer their well known brand of comedy.

Every one advertised will be there, and every one of the stage will be from the Grand Ole Opry. The show will start promptly at 7:30, and the same brand of entertainment that you hear every Saturday night on WSM on the Grand Ole Opry program will be carried out on the stage of the tent theater on the stage of the tent theater.

In an effort to give a boost to civilian morale, the Office of Defense Transportation has granted Jamup and Honey sufficient gasoline to transport their Grand Ole Opry tent show, over a limited area this summer.

No tickets will be sold in advance for this great show, but the box offices will open early on the grounds and purchasers admitted to the main tent in Murray Monday night, September 13, at 7:30.

Balbo Rye Has Many Advantages As Feed Crop

Balbo rye is of Italian origin. It was introduced into this county by the Tennessee Experiment Station and was named by that station in honor of Italo Balbo, the Italian general who led a group of aviators from Italy on a good-will flight to the Chicago World's Fair.

Balbo rye has been included in rye crop and pasture demonstrations for several years and has been shown to be a crop of all crops used. It makes a rapid growth, has a quick recovery from overgrazing or winter injury, produces enormous amounts of pasture under favorable soil and weather conditions, and does better than other cover crop under unfavorable conditions. It can be seeded in late August or early September without damage from the Hessian fly, or it can be seeded late in the season with more safety than any of the small grains. It does best on good soil but makes satisfactory growth on relatively poor soils.

As an emergency feed crop, a very large acreage of Balbo rye is needed in Kentucky. Calloway county seems to have a fair supply of seed on hand. Farmers in other sections of the state are asking for rye seed but let's use it at home. There seems to be a place for the production of Balbo rye seed for next year. Care should be taken to select fields not infected with wild onions, and isolated from other varieties of rye. One to 1.4 bushels of seed per acre is sufficient for seed production. Certified seed should be used for foundation seed plots. Produce Balbo rye for pasture and for seed in 1944.

Obituary

Mrs. Lela Brooks Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neely Brooks, was born March 25, 1883, died August 16, 1943, age 48 years, 4 months, 16 days. She was married to S. L. Turner November 15, 1916. To this union were born four children: 3 daughters, Mrs. Rex Dowdy, Elsie and Lucile, and one son, Daymon.

Mrs. Turner professed faith in Christ some few weeks ago at First Baptist Church. She expressed her desire to her family and neighbors to join Palestine Methodist church, but sickness prevented her doing so, but we have the blessed assurance that she was a member of the invisible church and is now rejoicing around the Throne of God with all the redeemed who have passed on. Heaven is nearer and sweeter today because of her presence there. A home has been made lonely and sad because of her going, but Heaven has been made brighter. Her burdens have all been laid down and today she lives in glory where there are no burdens, no heartaches, no tears, no sickness.

She leaves a husband, four children, an aged father and mother, a twin sister, one brother, one half sister, one half brother and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her passing. To those who would weep not as those who have no hope. For there shall come a time when we shall all see her again. Let us live close to Him who said, "I go to prepare a place for you, and I will come again and receive you unto myself, that where I am there you may be also." May the Holy Spirit comfort your hearts.
